If you have any questions about this Notice, please contact:

Integrative Family Medicine, PA at (210) 888-1817.

WHO WILL FOLLOW THIS NOTICE?

- Integrative Family Medicine, PA
- Simone Norris, MD
- employees

We understand that medical information about you and your health is personal and are committed to protecting this information. When you receive care at Integrative Family Medicine PA, a record of the care and services you receive is made. Typically, this record contains your treatment plan, history and physical, test results, and billing record. This record serves as a:

- Basis for planning your treatment and services;
- Means of communication among the physicians and other health care providers involved in your care;
- Means by which you or a third-party payor can verify that services billed were actually provided;
- Source of information for public health officials; and
- Tool for assessing and continually working to improve the care rendered.

This Notice tells you the ways we may use and disclose your Protected Health Information (referred to herein as "medical information"). It also describes your rights and our obligations regarding the use and disclosure of medical information.

OUR RESPONSIBILITIES: Integrative Family Medicine, PA shall:

- Make every effort to maintain the privacy of your medical information;
- Provide you with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to information we collect and maintain about you;
- Abide by the terms of this notice;
- Notify you if we are unable to agree to a requested restriction; and
- Accommodate reasonable requests you may have to communicate health information by alternative means or at alternative locations.
- Integrative Family Medicine, PA will notify you and the Department of Health & Human Services, of any unauthorized acquisition, access, use or disclosure of your unsecured medical information that presents a significant risk of financial, reputational or other harm to you, to the extent required by law. Unsecured medical information means medical information not secured by technology that renders the information unusable, unreadable, or indecipherable as required by law.

THE METHODS IN WHICH WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU.

The following categories describe different ways we may use and disclose your medical information. The examples provided serve only as guidance and do not include every possible use or disclosure.

- For Treatment. We will use and disclose your medical information to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and any related service. For example, we may share your information with your primary care physician or other specialists to whom you are referred for follow-up care.
- For Payment. We will use and disclose medical information about you so that the treatment and services you receive may be billed and payment may be collected from you, an insurance company, or a third party. For example, we may need to disclose your medical information to a health plan in order for the health plan to pay for the services rendered to you.
- For Health Care Operations. We may use and disclose medical information about you for office operations. These uses and disclosures are necessary to run Integrative Family Medicine, PA in an efficient manner and provide that all patients receive quality care. For example, your medical records and health information may be used in the evaluation of services, and the appropriateness and quality of health care treatment. In addition, medical records are audited for timely documentation and correct billing.
- Appointment Reminders. We may use and disclose medical information in order to remind you of an appointment. For example, Integrative Family Medicine, PA may provide a written or telephone reminder that your next appointment with Dr. Simone Norris is coming up.
- As Required by Law. We will disclose medical information about you when required to do so by federal or Texas laws or regulations.
- To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety. We may use and disclose medical information about you to medical or law enforcement personnel when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of another person.

SPECIAL SITUATIONS.

- Organ and Tissue Donation. If you have formally indicated your desire to be an organ donor, we may release medical information to organizations that handle procurement of organ, eye, or tissue transplantations.
- Military and Veterans. If you are a member of the armed forces, we may release medical information about you as required by military command authorities.
- Workers' Compensation. We may release medical information about you for workers' compensation or similar programs. These programs provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness.
- Public Health Risks. We may disclose medical information about you for public health activities. These activities generally include the following activities:

- To prevent or control disease, injury, or disability;
- To report reactions to medications or problems with products;
- To notify people of recalls of products they may be using;
- To notify a person who may have been exposed to a disease or may be at risk for contracting or spreading a disease or condition; and
- To notify the appropriate government authority if we believe you have been the victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence.

All such disclosures will be made in accordance with the requirements of Texas and federal laws and regulations.

- Health Oversight Activities. We may disclose medical information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. Health oversight agencies include public and private agencies authorized by law to oversee the health care system. These oversight activities include, for example, audits, investigations, inspections, and licensure. These activities are necessary for the government to monitor the health care system, government programs, eligibility or compliance, and to enforce health-related civil rights and criminal laws.
- Lawsuits and Disputes. If you are involved in certain lawsuits or administrative disputes, we may disclose medical information about you in response to a court or administrative order.
- Law Enforcement. We may release medical information if asked to do so by a law enforcement official:
 - In response to a court order or subpoena; or
 - If Integrative Family Medicine determines there is a probability of imminent physical injury to you or another person, or immediate mental or emotional injury to you.

Other Uses or Disclosures. Any other use or disclosure of PHI will be made only upon your individual written authorization. You may revoke an authorization at any time provided that it is in writing and we have not already relied on the authorization.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU.

You have the following rights regarding medical information collected and maintained about you:

- Right to Inspect and Copy. You have the right to inspect and copy medical information that may be used to make decisions about your care. Usually, this includes medical and billing records.

To inspect and copy medical information that may be used to make decisions about you, you must submit your request in writing to Integrative Family Medicine, PA. If you request a copy of the information, Integrative Family Medicine, PA may charge a fee established by the Texas Medical Board for the costs of copying, mailing, or summarizing your records.

- Right to Amend. If you feel that medical information maintained about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask Integrative Family Medicine, PA to amend the information. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the information is kept by Integrative Family Medicine, PA.

To request an amendment, your request must be made in writing and submitted to Integrative Family Medicine, PA. In addition, you must provide a reason that supports your request.

Integrative Family Medicine, PA may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. In addition, Integrative Family Medicine, PA may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:

- Was not created by Integrative Family Medicine, PA unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment;
 - Is not part of the medical information kept by Integrative Family Medicine, PA;
 - Is not part of the information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or
 - Is accurate and complete.
- Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to request an “accounting of disclosures.” This is a list of the disclosures made of your medical information for purposes other than treatment, payment, or health care operations.

To request this list you must submit your request in writing to Integrated Family Medicine, PA. Your request must state a time period, which may not be longer than six (6) years. Your request should indicate in what form you want the list (for example, on paper or electronically). The first list you request within a 12-month period will be free. For additional lists within the 12-month period, you may be charged for the cost of providing the list. Integrative Family Medicine, PA will notify you of the cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your request at that time before any costs are incurred.

- Right to Request Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the medical information Integrative Family, PA uses or discloses about you for treatment, payment or health care operations. You also have the right to request a limit on the medical information Integrative Family Medicine, PA discloses about you to someone who is involved in your care or the payment for your care.

Integrative Family Medicine, PA is not required to agree to your request, unless the request pertains solely to a healthcare item or service for which Integrative Family Medicine, PA has been paid out of pocket in full. Should Integrative Family Medicine, PS agree to your request, Integrative Family Medicine, PA will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you emergency treatment.

To request restrictions you must make your request in writing to Integrative Family Medicine, PA. In your request, you may indicate: (1) what information you want to limit; (2) whether you want to limit Integrative Family Medicine, PA’s use and/or disclosure; and (3) to whom you want the limits to apply.

- Right to Request Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that Integrative Family Medicine, PA communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that Integrative Family Medicine, PA contact you only at work or by mail.

To request that Integrative Family Medicine, PA communicate in a certain manner, you must make your request in writing to the Privacy Officer. You do not have to state a reason for your request. Integrative Family Medicine, PA will accommodate all reasonable requests. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted.

CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE.

We reserve the right to change our practices and to make the new provisions effective for all PHI we maintain. Should our information practices change, we will post the amended Notice of Privacy Practices in our office and on our website. You may request that a copy be provided to you by contacting the Privacy Officer .
